

OGDEN BOOSTERS ON A VISIT TO THE GARDEN CITY

About fifty Ogden boosters, representative citizens and manufacturers, as the guests of the Knight Woolen Mills of Provo, went on a special train to the Garden City this morning to inspect the large properties of "mine host." The special, consisting of two cars, left over the Salt Lake and Ogden railway for Salt Lake at which place the party departed for Provo over the Salt Lake route. Upon their arrival in the southern metropolis, the visitors were banqueted, after which an inspection of the mills and other industries of the city will be made.

The members of the Ogden party, escorted by R. A. Barney, special representative of the Knight company, were:

Mayor A. R. Heywood, Commissioner Chris Flygare, T. Samuel Brown, George Goddard, Jos. Scowcroft, Jr., Henry Stevens, Thomas Penney, A. T. Wright, Gus Wright, Thomas Matthews, William Craig, Dr. G. A. Dickson, James Cassin, Roy Tribe, F. A. Denny, H. E. Revor, Angus Lochhead, A. W. Hadley, J. W. F. Volker, Ed Olsen, Arthur Shreeves, I. Belmont, J. E. Davenport, Seth Thomas, Roy Buchmiller, Joseph Thomas, I. N. Pierce, Henry Black, Charles Nicholas, W. E. Zuppan, W. R. McBride, Charles Shaffer, Frank Wright, J. S. Daniels, Robert Pruditt, Dr. William Watson, J. S. Carver, Joseph MacFarlane, W. T. Greenwell, N. A. Gay, Chris Brown, Bert Treseder, S. J. Griffin, Ernest Richardson, B. H. Goddard, Charles Empey and Wilford Bramwell.

The special was in charge of Conductor A. J. Johnson with W. A. Stone as motorman.

Pauline Fredericks in "Lydia Gilmore"—the big production, better than "The Rack." Sunday at Alhambra.

NEW BUILDINGS ARE PLANNED FOR THE PRESENT YEAR

Work was started yesterday afternoon by Major A. R. Heywood in the remodeling of the building in the Key block for a modern store. The Postal Telegraph Company and the other occupants vacated the structure on Wednesday and the contractor's crew immediately began the work of tearing out the inside. Heretofore the main floor of the building has been up about two feet above the sidewalk. The floor will be lowered and a modern front will be added.

One of the many improvements planned by Manager H. W. Peery of the Ogden theater for the new year is the installation of a modern ticket office and front. A crew of carpenters are now rushing the work. The fireproof booth is made of birch inlaid with white vitrolite glass with rich tapestry hangings and curtains. Large French plate mirrors four feet by five feet, have been added at each side of the parquet entrance, which will be greatly appreciated by the ladies.

In many quarters of the city improvements have been planned by owners and occupants of buildings. It is stated that a number of new blocks are contemplated. Contractors of the city are very optimistic and maintain the new year will see great building activity in Ogden. Among some of the buildings under contemplation is a large store and hotel building at the corner of Twenty-fourth street and Hudson avenue, by the D. H. Peery Estate. A number of the large manufacturing plants in and about the city will submit plans for the enlargement of their properties and structures at the January meetings of the stockholders.

THEATERS

AT THE ORPHEUM.
Headed by General Risano of the Italian army, in his remarkable feature act, "The Bombardment of Tripoli," the "regular" Pantages vaudeville program presented yesterday afternoon and evening at the Orpheum theatre proved one of the best of the season. Risano is fully entitled to his headline position, as he presents a most remarkable act. He is a remarkably skillful sharpshooter and aside from the interest caused by the spectacular opening of his act, the audience is held in wonderment by his almost uncanny shooting.

The bill is given a good start by the Swain-Ostman trio of acrobats. The trio are expert tumblers and mix feats of skill with comedy in the approved whirlwind fashion.

Gertie Van Dyke in "Songs and Clothes," has an act good enough for the "big time." She is an unusually gifted comedienne.

The sketch "The Boy and the Regiment" presented by Laura Winston and Company, is genuinely interesting.

Grady and Harlow, who are down on the program for some ballroom dances, can also do other things that prove good entertainment. They open with a "stock" act number that is voted "cute" and wins applause. Then, on the full stage, they present their own conception of modern ballroom dancing, which is enthusiastically applauded.

Something very much out of the ordinary is a copyrighted musical act entitled "A Few Moments at the Club." This is presented by a male trio, possessors of fine voices. One member also plays the violin and piano skillfully and the act on the whole is one of the best that the Pantages circuit has sent to Ogden.

An unprogrammed act that also gives much pleasure is presented by the Turners, a duo of xylophone artists.

nessed a sensational act yesterday afternoon and evening at the Alhambra theater, presented by Princess Indita, an Indian dancer and snake charmer. The act is performed in a realistic stage setting, representative of the Arizona desert and the dances are descriptive of religious rites of the Hopi Indians. Indita is graceful and athletic and adds interest to her act by handling poisonous snakes of several kinds, in connection with the interpretation of the dances. Her work was viewed with deep attention and was heartily applauded.

A comedy playlet, "Mr. Step's Steps," presented by Mabel Florence and two male folk is of next interest and is stamped with genuine approval. The three members of the cast are thoroughly experienced players.

Agnes Ahern and Company have something new in the way of acrobatics and close their performance with a sensational turn. Feats of strength that are interesting make up the fore part of the act and in the concluding feature, the company, a modern "Hercules," balances an immense electric wheel. The lady mounts the wheel, the electric current is turned into it and she is whirled around at rapid speed for more than a minute, the center of a circle of lights.

Sam Herman, a Hebrew character comedian, has plenty of talent but needs a new dialogue, a couple of songs being the only things in his act worth while.

Lee Chandler and partner, make a big hit in their opening song and dance numbers, as they have considerable talent.

Marshall and Nelson have an acceptable stock act, their songs and dancing being well received.

"THE DISCIPLE" AT THE OGDEN.

"The Disciple," one of the best releases through the Triangle corporation which the Ogden theater has received thus far, began its three days run Thursday afternoon. The star of the picture is William S. Hart, a very strong artist of the western type. While the picture does not abound in the thrilling escapes and wild dashes the thrilling drama that it depicts is a gripping drama that appeals to the lover of home and things beautiful. The story deals with the revenge of a person upon a gambler who had runaway with his wife. The scenes are splendid and particularly good is the thunder storm in the mountains. "Her Painted Hero," a Triangle-Keystone featuring Hale Hamilton and Polly Moran, is the comedy offering.

BAPTISTS OF OGDEN HOLD ELECTION OF OFFICERS

The annual meeting of the First Baptist church last night was largely attended, and just about 100 responses were heard at the roll call, besides a few messages from absent members. The church auditorium was well filled and the reports from the church and all affiliated organizations showed a substantial progress in all lines. This was especially noticeable in the financial report. With a greatly enlarged budget over previous years

The case of the City vs. James Murphy and C. J. Anderson was also wiped from the calendar this morning, the former forfeiting $25 ball and the latter having the charge against him dismissed, on motion of the assistant city attorney. The two men were arrested December 23, by Sergeant H. C. Peterson and Patrolman T. H. Blackburn, on suspicion of having worked in Ogden a "sure thing" game on a resident of Ashton, Idaho. They were charged with vagrancy.

The case against H. E. Johnson, who was alleged to have struck a newsboy with his fist, was dismissed on motion of the assistant city attorney, it having been found that there was no cause for action.

HERE'S THE OLDEST AMERICAN ANTIQUITY

It looks like a mud-pie Billikin, but the scientists of the United States Museum in Washington say that it used to be worshipped as a god by the people who lived near Vera Cruz, Mexico, 100 years before Christ and that it is the oldest dated American antiquity.

The statuette was uncovered fifteen years ago by the plow of a Mexican peasant, but the secret of the inscriptions on it have only just been solved by the savants in the employ of Uncle Sam. The scientists say that in the strange characters discernible in the picture there is a hint to further buried evidences of the life of the ancient civilization and they hope to uncover new secrets of this old American race of people.

NO DATE FOR OPENING OF UTAH CEREAL FACTORY

While a definite date for the opening of the Utah Cereal Food Plant, at the corner of Twenty-ninth street and Pacific avenue has not been set, yet it is expected that it will only be a matter of a short time before the machinery is placed in operation. The date for the opening will probably be set by the stockholders at their meeting on January 15, at which time the policy of the company will be defined and officers elected for the ensuing year.

The elevators of the plant have been placed in operation and already the company has about one million pounds of wheat, oats, barley and other products on hand—enough for a run that will allow the placing of each of the products upon the mar-

CALLED HIS BLUFF

There are a lot of four-flushers who go through life without learning that four-flushing is a fine art. Such are beneath contempt. But one has great admiration for those few who have mastered the game.

"If a man called me a liar," asserted one of such, "I'd sail in and lick him if he weighed 300 pounds."

"Well, you big bluff," answered one who was tired of listening.

"I call you, right here and now. You're a liar."

"Bluff yourself," came back the artist, without a minute's hesitation. "You don't weigh more than 150, and you know what I said."

ZEPPELINS OR SPIDERS

A story is told of a young French woman who observed with punctiliousness the wartime precautions ordered by the police.

She kept the shutters closed at night-fall and the curtains pulled down escape from her apartments. But one night, when reading the newspaper, she said that she had reached the limit.

The newspapers said that if the Zeppelin came, all persons must go into the cellars. She told her friends she would not go down into the cellar.

"I do not care a fig for the Zeppelin," she said. "It is no use asking me I will not go down into the cellar."

"But why?" asked her friend. "Because," she replied, "I am afraid of spiders."

VERY UNUSUAL

"I met with an unusual experience today."

"That so? What happened?"

"I upset an ink bottle on a clean tablecloth."

"Nothing unusual about that."

"Yes, there was. The bottle was empty."

PLATE GLASS BROKEN IN BY ROBBERS IN SALT LAKE

The Ogden police were notified this morning by Capt. Emil Johnson of the Salt Lake police department, of an unusually bold robbery which occurred in Salt Lake last night. The William Schubach jewelry store, 174 South Main street, plate glass front windows were broken by the thieves. Among the articles of jewelry taken were 44 solid gold rings, valued at $200; 44 rings with cameo and other settings; a lady's Hampden gold watch, hunting case; 2 bracelet watches; 4 two dollar and 1 one dollar Ingersoll watches, and 3 gold filled watches.
